Cultivate Children's Unique Creativity

Reviewers Agreement

Thank you for logging on to The Golden Butterfly Reviews page, and for your interest in having your children's book reviewed by our company and published on our website.

Golden Butterfly Publishing is a publishing company that works to enhance the unique imagination of children. Our focus is on publishing children's books, educational consulting, performances and readings for children, and reviews of children's books that capture the imagination of children.

We review all published (including self published) Children's and Young Adult books that are submitted by the publicist, author, and/or the publishing company. We want the authors to know that we will focus on the positive aspects of why your book may be a good read for children. You will receive a copy of this review by e-mail. Also, your review will be posted on our website, Shelfari, Jacketflap, and a social networking site. Please indicate whether your book is available on www.amazon.com. We will be happy to post your review on this site also. Additionally, your book will be included in our monthly newsletter that goes out to parents for recommended reading beginning August 2010.

Please be informed that Golden Butterfly Publishing reserves the right to refuse to read, review, and distribute information concerning books that are offensive in nature containing images or text that promote viewpoints that will offend the readers, staff or children associated with this site. Our policy regarding this type of material is to contact the sender by e-mail pertaining to why the review of the book was refused, retain all materials, and fees. Additionally, we will provide a copy of this statement for the author or publisher that submitted the work by e-mail.

Please acknowledge that you have the right to submit these materials for review, and that you agree to these terms by printing this page and signing. Please include this page with your submitted materials.
